

9 Things you Simply Must Do to Succeed in Life

1. Dig It Up- Potential is something to be realized, not guarded and protected. Dig it up and invest it. Life comes from inside.
2. Pull The Tooth- Deal with whatever is wrong. That means fixing it. Do not let bad situations sit, stagnate, get infected and drain away your life.
3. Play The Movie- Plot a movie, a vision of your starring character, your relationships, your spiritual life, your career, your health, your finances. See it, plan it, and then evaluate each scene you write everyday in light of where the movie is suppose to end.
4. Act Like An Ant- Life is what happens while we are making other plans. But too often we get overwhelmed when the obstacles we see standing between us and our goals loom to enormous to tackle.
5. Hate Well- What we hate defines us. What would you say about a person who said he hates arrogance, lying, innocent people being hurt, harmful schemes, evil practices and the drama people create and his life lines up with what he claims?
6. Don't Play Fair- Give the opposite. Don't try to even the score. Be free to move on. Give more than is given to you. Always rise above the world standards.
7. Do Something- Get active. Be who God created you to be. Dig up your dreams, but then ask yourself, what do I need to do now?
8. Be Humble- Humility is not having a need to be more than you are. Receive correction and confrontation from others well. We cannot grow and learn if we cannot admit our mistakes.
9. Upset The Right People- Successful people care about other people's feelings, but they don't base their decisions on them.

Inside of each of you lies a dream, a vision for the future, a cure for some disease or the next great scientific breakthrough. You have been created for greatness but you must choose to be great.

The world has a saying "the sky is the limit" don't believe that. There is no limit to how successful you can be but the one you place there.
